The notice must be visible to the street and placed on the premises at least 30 days before the demolition.

B18-173: Continuation of Health Coverage Amendment Act of 2009 would ensure that District workers who have been involuntarily terminated will be able to collect the continuing health coverage benefit subsidy provided under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (the "federal stimulus package"). The federal stimulus package provides a federal subsidy of 65% of the costs of continuing coverage for up to 9 months for employees who have been involuntarily terminated. Under current District law, however, employees of firms with 19 or fewer employees are entitled to continue coverage under the employer's health benefits plan for only 3 months.

The John A. Wilson Building
1350 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Room 120
Washington, DC 20004

Councilmember Muriel Bowser, Chairman, Committee on Public Services and Consumer Affairs, and Councilmember Kwame R. Brown, Chairman, Committee on Economic Development, announce a Public Oversight Roundtable on a Report by the District of Columbia Auditor on the Certified Capital Companies Program. The Roundtable will be held on Friday, April 3, 2009, at 11:00 a.m., in Room 120 of the John A. Wilson Building, 1350 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20004. The purpose of this Joint Public Oversight Roundtable is to question the District Auditor and the Department of Insurance, Securities and Banking on the findings and recommendations outlined in the report.

The Certified Capital Companies (CAPCO) Act was passed in 2003 to stimulate the growth of small and start-up businesses in the District of Columbia. The District sacrificed insurance premium tax revenues in exchange for anticipated economic growth through income tax revenues from salaries paid to District residents who were employees of CAPCO businesses, sales tax revenues from the purchase of goods and services from these businesses, and business tax revenue. The Auditor found that the CAPCO program was poorly managed by the District's Department of Insurance, Securities and Banking, in that it misrepresented key provisions of the Act and failed to consistently comply with statutory mandates. CAPCO cost the District $50 million in tax credits and resulted in the creation of only 31 jobs.

Members of the public are invited to testify. Testimony will be limited to 3 minutes per public witness and 5 minutes for members who speak on behalf of organizations. Those wishing to testify should contact Ms. Davida Crockett of the Committee on Public Services and Consumer Affairs at 202-724-8025 or via e-mail at dcrockett@dccouncil.us by Wednesday, April 1, 2009 at 5:00 p.m. Witnesses should bring 10 copies of their written testimony to the hearing or e-mail a copy to Davida Crockett before the Roundtable.

Members of the Public may submit written testimony which will be made part of the official record to Ms. Cynthia Brock-Smith, Secretary to the Council, 1350 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Suite 5, Washington, DC 20004 within 7 days of the scheduled hearing.
